CART GIRL OF THE MONTH

Just when you thought you could concentrate on your golf game, Jeanette Schuster—a full-time model and native of San Diego—joins Pin-Up Golf (www.pinupgolf.com), a California company of sexy cart girls who travel to professional tournaments nationwide. Schuster likes watching golfers set up for their swing. “I like looking at their tan little calves,” she says. But don’t count on her to fix your slice—she’s content with being a spectator.

OVEREXPOSED “I grew up playing golf. I was forced to do it as a kid, so I’m really not into it.”

WATER HAZARD “I’ve seen some pretty funny stuff. One guy broke his club in half, and another guy was stomping on the greens. He must have been too close to the water, ’cause he fell right in.”

BABES IN TOYLAND “I am such a kid at heart. I’ve read all the Harry Potter books, and I have a room in my house that’s filled with stuffed animals. I’ve even named my dog and cat Tigger and Roo after Winnie-the-Pooh.”

DESIGNATED DRIVER “It was my first tournament [the Sean Salisbury tournament], and I was supposed to drive the cart for Jason Sehorn [the Giants cornerback]. He was such a gentleman that he insisted on driving me. All the other girls were working, and I was just sitting by his side—it was really sweet.”
