Pin-Up Golf Girls. The idea only makes GREAT sense. Model, actress and former Miss Budweiser Jennifer Pennington has created a company that provides ravishing hostesses for golf outings and tourneys around Southern California. Since she began the results have been tremendous for her and for the organizations using her services.

“Our job is to make a golf tournament more profitable for those putting on the event and to make it more fun for those playing in it,” said Pennington. “If you hire us, you're going to have higher sales. You'll be amazed how much more you're going to make.”
