"It was a pleasure having Pin-Up Golf as part of our tournament. The girls are obviously trained in the art of SELLING! Pin-Up Golf helped to raise essential funds for our charity, as well as increased the entertainment factor for our golfers - a definite win-win situation."

Diane Arrata - Director of Development Child and Family Guidance Center

"Thank You for your help and professionalism, as a Christian organization we sometimes have to be extremely careful in the public eye, but I can speak for all of us, you were part of the team and we thank you from the bottom of our hearts."

David A. Butler - President & CEO Paradise Valley Hospital

"As a participant at the Carl Reiner Golf Tournament in La Costa over Memorial Day weekend, I want to compliment you on a fabulous job done by the Pin-Up Golf Girls for the charity event. You conducted yourselves with real professionalism, and a unique attractive style. Definitely a class act, and one you should be commended for. It appears you have put together a nice organization, one not too 'lustfully sexy' but elegant and attractive sexy!"

Scott Snedaker - American Airlines Sales Manager

"Pin-Up Golf enhanced our tournament from beginning to end. A golf tournament lasts from morning until evening and requires momentum that will keep the golfers involved at every level. Pin-Up Golf was the key in accomplishing this task displaying professionalism, enthusiasm, and graciousness throughout the day. You truly provide exemplary service."

Sari Katz - National Multiple Sclerosis Society

"Pin-Up Golf's presence really added a special touch to our tournament. All the feedback I heard from the golfers was extremely positive! Your professionalism and attention to detail was greatly appreciated and your willingness to help out in any capacity was a huge help."

Glenda Belcher - President, Arthritis Foundation

"By adding your services, our tournament gained success financially and overall participant enjoyment. Your professionalism and golf knowledge were invaluable attributes and essential for the successful outcome of our event. The players truly appreciated your professional approach and super attitudes."

Mike Munson - USC Trojan Baseball Classic Director

"Your presence and energy added greatly to the success of our tournament. The job the Pin-Up Golf Girls did with taking pictures and selling raffle tickets was done with style and class."

Jack Folger - Chairman of National Assoc. of Purchasing Managers - L.A. Golf Tournament
